Addendum to the replies to the comments and questions concerning the fourth report submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1373 (2001)

In accordance with its obligations under the provisions of paragraph 6 of Security Council resolution 1373 (2001), the Government of Andorra submitted its latest detailed report on 10 February 2005 in response to the request made by the Committee in its letter of 15 November 2004.

With regard to the question set out in paragraph 1.1 concerning progress made in preparing a complete revision of the Penal Code, the Government of Andorra has the honour to inform you that, on 21 February 2005, the General Council approved the text of the new Andorran Penal Code, which will enter into force on 23 September 2005.

The new Penal Code takes into consideration all the penal provisions set forth under the counter-terrorist conventions and the treaties in force. A new chapter entitled "Terrorism offences", which defines and penalizes the concepts of a terrorist group and terrorist activities, was introduced. Furthermore, the new Penal Code also sanctions membership in a terrorist group, cooperation with such a group and any other offence that has a terrorist purpose.
